

Is definitely the room that mostly inspires tenderness.... home for about thirty children between 4 and 13 years old. Many of them are dependent and totally immobilized in bed...

Our interventions: new floors, plastering and painting of walls and ceiling, new mattresses, construction of a large closet, painting doors and windows. This year is our intention to paint some murals in order to give a more joyful look to the room.

{gallery}agragallery/cameradisabili{/gallery}